

If you're looking for utmost excitement, butterflies in your stomach, ultimate driving pleasure and great shows, then the entire family will enjoy a visit to Phantasieland.

Opening hours: 9 a.m.–6 p.m.
(March to October),
9 a.m.–9 p.m. (events, September/
October)
Homepage: <http://www.hansapark.de>

Europa Park

The Europa Park features 16 theme areas, 13 of which feature countries, 100 different attractions and several shows. Five adventure hotels are available for those who would like to spend their vacation in the park, or extend a one-day trip by another day. The roller coasters are the park's special attractions. Until 2012, the Silver Star was the highest roller coaster in Europe. The Blue Fire Mega coaster accelerates in 2.5 seconds from zero to more than 100 km per hour. It intersects with the wooden roller coaster Wodan which also passes through the Atlantica SuperSplash. Other highlights include the water roller coaster Poseidon, the Eurosat and the Euro-Mir.

amusement park-style attractions such as the wild water run Jungle Expedition, the Legoland look-out, the gondola roller coaster Project X – Lego Test Run, or the Fire Dragon, a family-friendly theme roller coaster. Even some of the roller coasters at Legoland are suitable for small children and turn the park into one of the most child-friendly amusement parks (2012).

Location: Günzburg (Bavaria)
Size: 70 hectares
Admission fees starts at: 35 Euro (kids), 39 Euro (adults)
Opening hours: 10 a.m.–6 p.m. (summer months till 8 p.m.)
Homepage: <http://www.legoland.de>

Location: Rust (Baden-Wuerttemberg)
Size: 90 hectares
Admission fees: 42.50 Euro (kids), 49.50 Euro (adults)
Opening hours: 9 a.m.–6 p.m. (March to November),
11 a.m.–7 p.m. (November to January)
Homepage: <http://www.europapark.de>

Movie Park Germany

Movie Park Germany (formerly known as Warner Bros. Movie World) offers five theme areas focusing on the movies and movie theaters, including rides, shows and studios where feature and TV movies are in production. Attractions include Bermuda Triangle wild water run, the Alien Encounter in the movie set Hollywood Street, the indoor roller coaster in the area Streets of New York and funny rides with SpongeBob or Sid, Manny, Diego and Scrat from Ice Age.

Location: Bottrop-Kirchhellen (North Rhine-Westphalia)
Size: 45 hectares
Admission fees starts at: 29 Euro (kids), 29 Euro (adults)
Opening hours: 10 a.m.–6 p.m. (summer months till 8 p.m.)
Homepage: <http://www.movieparkgermany.de>

Playmobil Fun Park

In 2000, the Playmobil Fun Park was opened adjacent to the Playmobil factory in Leichendorf near Zirndorf. The park is designed to keep kids on the move and, therefore, focuses on play stations and not on rides. The amusement park covers an area of 90.000 square meters. In 2005, the park was expanded by an indoor playground. In 2011, a balancing parcours was added and in 2013, a lake with canoes for kids.

Location: Zirndorf (Bavaria)
Admission fees: starting at 3 p.m. 7.90 Euro, day ticket: 9.90 Euro
Opening hours: 9 a.m.–6 p.m. (March, April, October, November), 9 a.m.–7 p.m. (May to September)
Homepage: <http://www.playmobil-funpark.de>

Hansa Park

Hansa Park is divided into 11 theme areas with 125 attractions, many shows and the Hansa Park Resort by the Sea (directly located on the Baltic Sea). The current highlight is the "Curse of Novgorod," a mix of a roller coaster with the steepest drop in the dark and many effects with an acceleration from zero to 100 km per hour in 1.4 seconds. Die Glocke (the bell) where you swing back and forth inside the clapper of a giant bell is no less spectacular, just like the wild water run Rio Dorado, or the giant chairplane Torre del Mar.

Location: Sierksdorf (Schleswig-Holstein)
Size: 46 hectares
Admission fees: 29.50 Euro (kids), 37.50 Euro (adults)

